D.P.U. 23-93

November 21, 2023

Petition of The Berkshire Gas Company for Approval of a Mid-Term Modification to its 2022-2024 Three-Year Energy Efficiency Plan.

On August 28, 2023, The Berkshire Gas Company (“Company”) filed a petition with the Department of Public Utilities (“Department”) seeking a mid-term modification to its 2022-2024 Three-Year Energy Efficiency Plan (“Three-Year Plan”), which was filed in D.P.U. 21-120 and approved by the Department in 2022-2024 Three-Year Energy Efficiency Plans, D.P.U. 21-120 through D.P.U. 21-129 (2022). The Department docketed this matter as D.P.U. 23-93.

The Company proposes to increase its Department-approved energy efficiency budgets in the Residential, Income-Eligible, and the Commercial and Industrial (“C&I”) sectors. In the Residential sector, the Company proposes to increase the budget for the Residential Existing Building program by $2,660,000 (or 32 percent) and the budget for its Residential Hard-to-Measure program by $140,000 (or 28 percent). The Company maintains that the proposed increase in the Residential Existing Building program budget is driven by higher than expected demand for heat pumps and states that it will use the budget increase to offer participant incentives for electrification measures within its Residential Retail Core Initiative. The Company maintains that the proposed increase in the Residential Hard-to-Measure program budget is necessary to address unanticipated increases in spending for education, evaluation and market research, sponsorships, and assessments.

In the Income-Eligible sector, the Company proposes to increase the budget for the Income-Eligible Existing Buildings program by $450,000 (or 10 percent). The Company maintains that the proposed increase is necessary to ensure that the Company allocates at least 20 percent of its expenditures for gas energy efficiency programs to the Income-Eligible sector as required by G.L. c. 25, § 19(c). The Company states that it will use the budget increase to fund a new large multi-family project.

In the C&I sector, the Company proposes a budget increase of $4,350,000 (or 139 percent) for the C&I Existing Buildings program. The Company maintains that the proposed increase is driven by higher than anticipated demand and states that it will use the budget increase for participant incentives in the C&I New & Replacement Core Initiative and the Existing Building Retrofit Core Initiative.

If the Department approves the mid-term modifications and associated budget increases as proposed, the Company states that customers will experience the following bill impacts:

- Average residential heating customers using 136 therms of gas per month in winter will experience a monthly bill increase of $4.077 (or 1.52 percent).
- Average residential low-income heating customers using 123 therms of gas per month in winter will experience a monthly bill increase of $2.76 (or 1.52 percent).
- Bill impacts for C&I customers will vary. These customers should contact the Company for specific bill impact information.
